Newsletter No.19 – June 2017

It has been a while since last BATwords but still work goes on.

The next exhibition is getting nearer. The closing date for submission is Sunday 23rd July. We need to have your entries ready for selection to ensure we have yet another highly regarded show of work.

Midsummer Madness En Plein Air
Sunday Painters Session

1pm, Sunday 25th June - Greenwich Yacht Club
Peartree Way, London SE10 0BW

After longest day of the year, artistic members can use their drawing and painting skills around the yard – as well as invite fellow artists (from outside art societies or classes they attend) to come to the club. So those inclined to paint pictures of boats (rather than their hulls), should contact Chris Francis (07976 707614 or francis-C5@sky.com)
