Social 5th March Report

Our last gathering at Baldwyns Park Baptist Church Hall was a really enjoyable event. Suzie Baker presented us with a demonstration of how to use alcohol inks on yupo paper producing some impressive results.

Suzie had brought materials for everyone to have a go. Around the room it was pleasing to see many people getting involved and delighting in a new and exciting medium for many. Suzie will do another session at one of our afternoon gatherings and some local art clubs are keen to engage her for demos.

To add to our enjoyment Sadie Yamamoto sang some jazz standard songs – so good she is back on our scene.

Some of our poets presented some interesting, thought-provoking pieces namely Gladys Seal and Tony Sandall.

Many thanks to all who contributed to make a very enjoyable evening.
