BATwords

Newsletter No.28 - May 2018

Some very sad news first:

Artist Rog Rogers died at home on Saturday 12th May from a cardiac arrest. Rog was a great character who contributed an enormous amount to art in Bexley over innumerable years. Many of you will have worked alongside him or have attended his group workshops.

Further information will be circulated when available.

88888888888888888888888888888888888888

ARE YOU PREPARING YOUR SUBMISSIONS FOR THE SUMMER OPEN?

Closing date is 10th June 2018 by jpeg or photo AND the form to:

John Davey at 5 Pinewood Road Abbey Wood SE2 0RY
johndavey@msn.com

The success of the exhibition depends on your participation by submitting amazing work.

THE BIG DRAW

Do come to our next social afternoon from 1.45 to 3.45pm on Wednesday 23rd May at Hurst Community Centre in the Small Hall (DA5 3LH).

Trevor Root has kindly agreed to demonstrate portrait sketching during the afternoon.

You are invited/requested to bring along your sketch pads and join in.
You may like to offer yourself as a model for the sketchers.

ART AND CRAFT FAIR

Wendy Robinson has an Art Stall at Gravesham Borough Market in Gravesend on Sunday,20th May at 10am.

Her stall will have acrylic flow art canvas works to buy and painted bottles, diffusers and little boxes. Acrylic flow art demonstrations during the day.